Japan & the US: Challenges Ahead

with His Excellency Ichiro Fujisaki

Ambassador of Japan to the United States

MONDAY, AUGUST 30, 2010 | 2:00 PM

Florida International University
Modesto A. Maidique Campus, MARC Pavilion
11200 SW 8th Street, Miami

His Excellency Ichiro Fujisaki has served as Japan's ambassador to the United States since June 2008. He served as the political minister of the Embassy of Japan in Washington, DC, from 1995-99. As a diplomat, he has also served in Jakarta, Paris (OECD), and London. Prior to his current post, he served as Ambassador to the UN and to the WTO in Geneva. While there, he served as the Chairman of the Executive Committee of UNHCR (UN High Commissioner for Refugees). In the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tokyo, he has held such posts as Deputy Director-General for Asian Affairs and Director-General for North American Affairs before being appointed as the Deputy Foreign Minister. He has also served as the Sherpa, or the personal representative, of the Prime Minister to G8 Summit meetings.

Lecture is free and open to the public. For more information, call 305-348-7266.
